

Geography – Brazil

Key Knowledge

- The capital city of Brazil is Brasilia.
- Brazil is in South America.
- South America is surrounded by the Pacific and the Atlantic Oceans.
- The most common religion in Brazil is Christianity.
- Christ the Redeemer is a landmark in Rio De Janeiro.
- Real is the currency used in Brazil.
- The Amazon is the largest river in world by volume.
- The Amazon rainforest is the largest rainforest in the world.
- Brazil is home to the Rio carnival which is known for impeccable performances, samba music, and colourful costumes.
- Most of Brazil is in the tropical climate zone close to the Equator.

To investigate places.

To investigate patterns.

To communicate geographically.

Vocabulary

Human features	Features created or impacted by humans.
Physical features	Features that have naturally developed.
Population	The number of people who live in a place.
Landmark	An object or feature that is easily seen and recognised.
Culture	The ideas, customs, traditions and social behaviour of a group of people.
Currency	The system of money used in a particular place.
Climate	Weather conditions over a period of time.
Continent	A large solid area of land.
Country	A nation with its own government.
City	An inhabited place of greater size, population, or importance than a town or village.